

HomeAboutLessonsContact

Georgia Sears has been a private piano teacher for over 20 years. While a graduate student at the University of Houston from 1994-1997, Georgia was awarded a teaching fellowship and taught private and class piano. After graduation, Georgia served as Professor of Piano at San Jacinto Community College in Houston, Texas until 2000. At this time she began teaching at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona where she continued until the year 2007. From 2004-2015 she established and maintained a private studio in Buckeye, AZ which has included students of all ages and levels. Georgia's students have regularly participated in Phoenix and Arizona State Music Teachers Association competitions and have won numerous awards.